

GTJAI Volunteer Team Held Mosaic Lamp Workshop, Bringing Care to Community Seniors

2024/03/05

[5 March 2024, Hong Kong] Guotai Junan International Holdings Limited (“Guotai Junan International”, the “Company” or “GTJAI”, stock code: 1788.HK) recently collaborated with the Hong Kong Christian Service to hold a Turkish mosaic lamp workshop. A team of 16 GTJAI volunteers joined forces with 20 community seniors to make Turkish mosaic lamps together, delivering warmth and care to the seniors in the community.

This event marks another community charity initiative organized by GTJAI in collaboration with the Hong Kong Christian Service, following its participation in the “Christmas Party with SEN Children” last December. With the increasing proportion of elderly population in Hong Kong, the physical and mental well-being of community seniors has become a growing concern of the society. The Company aims to provide meaningful interactive experiences for the senior individuals who lack family and social support through this workshop, offering them social and emotional support, while contributing to strengthening the connection between the seniors and the community.

GTJAI has always adhered to the concept of "Finance for Good," actively focusing on social welfare and engaging in diverse community activities in areas such as environmental protection, education and aging. The Company continuously increases its investment in community services to drive community development. In the future, GTJAI will continue taking on its social responsibilities, leading employees to actively engage in local communities. Through the consolidation of various resources, the Company will keep seeking to establish a harmonious society that promotes inclusivity and mutual assistance.
