

GTJAI Named to Bloomberg Green “2026 Ones to Watch List” —— “Green Financial Institution List”

2025/12/11

【Hong Kong, December 11, 2025】 Recently, the Bloomberg Green “2026 Ones to Watch List” was officially released. Guotai Junan International Holdings Limited (“GTJAI” or “the Company”, stock code: 1788.HK), a subsidiary of Guotai Haitong Group, has been included in the “Green Financial Institution List” for its outstanding performance and innovative practices in the field of green finance.

GTJAI has always regarded green finance as the core driver of its strategic development, systematically building an industry-leading sustainable finance system. The Company not only fully integrates green concepts into investment and financing decisions as well as business operations, but also actively promotes the transition to a low-carbon economy and the long-term co-creation of value through innovative products and services. With its in-depth practices and outstanding achievements in key areas such as green bonds, carbon asset management, and sustainable investment, the Company has earned high recognition and sustained trust from the market and regulatory authorities.

Looking ahead, GTJAI will further leverage its professional strengths to continuously expand its green finance product matrix, deepen the innovation and application of green finance tools, and constantly broaden and deepen the green finance ecosystem, injecting lasting green momentum into the high-quality development of the economy and society.

Bloomberg Green is affiliated with the internationally leading media group, Bloomberg. It is the first media platform globally and in China to comprehensively focus on the green economy. In recent years, Bloomberg Green has launched several authoritative lists with significant industry influence, actively leading and promoting outstanding corporate practices in the field of sustainable development. The “Green Finance List” is a new list introduced for the first time by Bloomberg Green, aiming to respond to national green finance policy calls, drive green transformation for financial institutions and enterprises, and support the achievement of the “dual carbon” goals.
