[IMPORTANT NOTICE]

Beware of Fraudulent Activities

Impersonating Guotai Junan International

August 24, 2026

Dear Valued Clients & Investors,

Guotai Junan International Holdings Limited ("GTJAI" / "the Company") and its affiliates (collectively "the Group") have recently identified instances of fraudsters impersonating the Company or the Group to conduct investment scams.

Common fraudulent tactics include:

- Identity Impersonation: Contacting investors by forging the Group's employee business cards, trading platforms, or official websites.
- Defrauding Funds: Inducing clients to transfer funds into personal or third-party bank accounts belonging to fraudsters.
- Acquiring Personal Data: Requesting clients to fill out forged documents or electronic forms to collect sensitive personal information.

The Company urges all investors and clients to remain highly vigilant when encountering suspicious messages. Please pay attention to the following important information and ensure you verify information or conduct transactions through our Official Contact Channels:

1. Official Contact Channels
